

ATHARVA EDUCATIONAL TRUST'S
ATHARVA COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

(Approved by AICTE, Recognized by Government of Maharashtra & Affiliated to University of Mumbai - Estd. 1999 - 2000)

Academic Year 2019-20

REPORT OF INDUSTRIAL VISIT -TE EXTC Students

Departments :Electronics, & Telecommunication Engineering

Date : 16 January 2020

Name of the company: Inter – Solar Pvt. Ltd., Chandigarh

The students of Third year Electronics & Telecommunication Engineering from Atharva College of Engineering visited the Inter Solar Systems Pvt Ltd. (Solar Water Heater & Solar Panel Manufacturers Chandigarh) on 16th Jan, 2020.

Faculty In-charge: Prof. Rajendra Mahajan & Prof. Sarang Kulkarni

The Company was visited by total strength of 116 students. Inter Solar Systems since 1997 has established its name and entity as one of the most efficient organizations in this field, which pays attention to the holistic utilization of solar energy in the products that it manufactures. The organization consists of extremely talented and experienced personnel and it also possesses fresh minds and energy through the inclusion of young talent as another major source of business and service. In a span of few significant years, Inter Solar Systems has become one of the market leaders in the country due to its continuous efforts and creativity in the field of solar energy equipments.

The technical skills required for this company mainly included Power & Solar Engineering. Apart from technical skills, the candidate is required to apt in communication for providing solutions to the customers.

Photo 2: Industry trainer Mr. Raju Singh explaining the students about the solar panels