

ATHARVA EDUCATIONAL TRUST'S

ATHARVA COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

(Approved by AICTE, Recognized by Government of Maharashtra

& Affiliated to University of Mumbai - Estd. 1999 - 2000)

One day Industrial Visit at ONGC's Subir Raha Oil Museum, Dehradun, Uttarakhand, on 27th February, 2019

Faculty Membes:Kunal shriwas, Ankur Bhattacharjee and Sandeep Zade

Atharva College of Engineering INFT dept recently organized Industrial Visit to Subir Raha Oil Museum Situated in the charming Hill Station of Dehradun. The visit was for final year engineering students. The museum is named after ex-CMD of ONGC and located at the HQs of ONGC, the National Oil Company of India, inside heritage building/ kothi of Maharaja of Patiala which was subsequently given to ONGC for its office and now called as Tel Bhawan.

Through wonderful videos and demonstrations, exhibits of exploration and production for Hydrocarbons and Crude Oil history, etc. are marvelously displayed. Near the entrance a souvenir shop is also there.

ATHARVA EDUCATIONAL TRUST'S

ATHARVA COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

(Approved by AICTE, Recognized by Government of Maharashtra

& Affiliated to University of Mumbai - Estd. 1999 - 2000)

The museum encompasses in detail history & various facets of Oil industry. Visit to museum is interesting, knowledgeable and learning about gamuts of oil Industry & business and is very and educational.

The museum is split into distinct sections; one depicting the oil history with samples of varieties of crude oil and several charts & posters explaining their characteristics, another segment offers an insight at the exploration and production including the transportation methods and refining technology used in the industry. It additionally has an AV Room presenting the adventure of ONGC and Oil industry in India.

ATHARVA EDUCATIONAL TRUST'S

ATHARVA COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

(Approved by AICTE, Recognized by Government of Maharashtra

& Affiliated to University of Mumbai - Estd. 1999 - 2000)

